Note from the author

Dear Reader,

This book is called 'Messages from the Heart', and it is exactly what it says 'on the tin'. The messages you'll find in here are a series of inspirational posts I wrote on Facebook in 2021-2022. They all stemmed from my love for God, my exasperation over the evil powers that currently plague our world, and my excitement at the thought of our emerging bright new world that I know, without a shadow of a doubt, awaits at the end of the unbearable 'darkness' we are now collectively experiencing.

I wrote most of these messages on the spur of the moment and with an empty mind, by simply asking God to type the words for me as I placed my fingertips on the keyboard. I didn't think; I just typed. And I always did it first thing in the morning, with my green tea steaming in the mug, and me not still fully awake.

I guess I used the same process as I do when I write my novels. I just let myself go, but this time I specifically intended to write something that might benefit my online connections, who surely hurt at the time just as much as I did. I wanted to help them see some light in all the murky darkness that surrounded us.

Dear reader, I hope you'll find in here something useful, something that speaks to your own heart and is likely to help you in the dark days remaining until our free and peaceful new world emerges.

Speaking of the darkness... if you feel that you require some guidance, inspirational or otherwise, to navigate the scary news on TV, I'd like to invite you to pick up a free copy of my new, non-fiction book, 'Calm Through the Storm', if you haven't already.

I'll be honest. People call my theories on the world situation 'crazy' sometimes, but then again, people tend to brand as 'crazy' things they don't understand or simply have never heard before.

'Calm Through the Storm' may not resonate with you fully, but some of the ideas I express in it might help or illuminate you in ways you might not expect.

If the messages in the book you're holding create questions inside your head, reading 'Calm Through the Storm' will answer many of them, if not all, as I lay down my theory and all the insights from my research simply, so that people can easily grasp my views and my understanding of the current world situation.

You will find 'Calm Through the Storm' as a free download here <https://effrosyniwrites.com/food-for-thought/> along with other free books for free-thinking people.

For any questions or comments, you can email me at contact@effrosyniwrites.com

I am sending you sisterly love, and wish you the best that our forthcoming, peaceful, free, and prosperous world has to offer.

Message #1

For the past two and a half years we have been through 'hell'. But that 'hell' had a divine purpose. To transform us in ways we never thought possible. A chrysalis doesn't know, when it finds itself in darkness, inside its cocoon, that it's about to turn into a beautiful butterfly - that it's about to fly for the first time, never again a caterpillar that crawls on the dirt. God, and only God, whispers to it in the darkness of the cocoon, and gives it the illumination, the courage and the will to break free from its confines and head for the sky.

This is exactly how we are transforming right now. Of course, it's not an easy process. Especially since it's unprecedented. No one has done it before us. Remember. It takes pressure to change a piece of coal into a diamond. Therefore, no measure of pain, no anguish, and no tragedy that we have known so far in this world-gone-mad has been for nothing in God's magnificent, perfect, divine plan.

Yes, what we are experiencing is a fully controlled and divinely supervised plan to save Humanity from evil and to restore it to its original state. At the end of this harrowing, dark process, we will emerge as dwellers of Heaven on Earth. We will live the way the first humans created by God lived here in the beginning of time, before evil came.

The good news? Our tribulations are nearly finished. The worst of the darkness is looming ahead of us, but it is the very last tribulation, and it will last for the shortest time.

But do not worry. Together, we will pass right through it, strong in the faith of the paradise awaiting us on the other side. It may be the deepest darkness yet, but it will last for the shortest time. God knows we wouldn't survive it if it lasted for long. And God will make sure we will be kept safe. Remember this when the darkness falls. It'll only be short. Everything will come crashing down. You'll have to survive with the food and the cash you will have kept at home. Only for a few days.

You will hear stories about impending war, mortal danger coming from the sky. Ignore it all. These will be lies of the enemy of the people.

So don't panic when all that happens. Keep praying, keep calm. Help those who will lose their hope, those numb with fear, those who don't know that paradise awaits at the end of our journey.

Remember what I said. It all ends with paradise on Earth. For every man, woman and child who have kind hearts. People like you and me. Evil will perish from our eyes forever. Truth will prevail in all its glory. The unveiling of evil and its crimes committed against us is coming. Divine Justice. The righting of all wrongs.

God and His angels are here, protecting us all the way, holding us close, safe. They will keep us safe even at the darkest hour. Sending you all sisterly love, from my heart to yours.

Message #2

You are not just a body with a name. You are not defenceless and weak. No. You are a being of light, who came from the stars, and who's volunteered to descend on Earth to have a physical experience, again and again. To experience life, so that God, your Father, can experience it through you, because your consciousness is part of God's.

In this specific lifetime, you have bravely volunteered to come down here and to take part in the Great Awakening, in the cleansing of evil and the birth of the New Earth, in the emergence of a paradise on our beautiful planet, whose beauty and diversity is unique in the whole universe.

So yes, you are way more than you think, way more than evil ever had you believe you are so they can keep you under control. You are all-powerful consciousness, eternal, a divine spark of God.

Remember that as you go through your day. Every day. Until it 'becomes flesh'. The mind will make it so, and your body will transform. You will start to witness your own divine transformation to the supernatural being humans were at the start, before evil came here to dumb us all down. When you had, not 2, but 12 strands of DNA... Keep going, this process has only just begun. Love and light.

When you start to worry and to feel fear as you ponder upon the current state of the world, all you have to do is think about Daniel in the Lions' Den. Do as He did... Stay close to God and evil will never touch you. This is the only way to survive the devastating world events that have been unfolding since 2020.

The world is undergoing a process that seems baffling to many, but not to all. To those who have studied the Bible or have just done some basic research, this process is well-known. Some of us have known for a long time The New World Order would try all this... This process we are undergoing has been prophesied and many have warned us, therefore we know well how it ends.

Being a process, it has a beginning and an end. All you have to do is hang on until it is over, but you have to do it in the faith that God will keep you safe at all times. It is important that you keep fear at bay. The satanic elites (aka The New World Order) will ramp up the fear factor this fall... so you must remember that. Don't let anything scare you. Especially since it will only be smoke and mirrors.

Remember. No nuclear war can ever happen. And no alien invasion will ever be true. They will attempt to scare you witless so you may allow them to implement a one-world government. But this will never come to pass because God has intervened and His decision is final.

What awaits us all is not worldwide slavery and mass genocide. No. What awaits us instead, by the grace of God, is a world of peace, joy, health and prosperity for all. But first, remember. We have to go through the worst. The darkest hour. It's coming this fall.

Keep the faith, and don't believe the lies they will tell you as per above. Always keep some extra food and some cash for the big shutdown - max 2-3 weeks.

If you are still reading, it means you have an open mind. Or, at least, that you are curious in a healthy way. I congratulate you for that. It also means that the idea of God does not repel you. It means that the spirit of the Antichrist has not permeated your thinking, has not destroyed your capacity to think with logic and reason.

And for this seemingly impossible feat, because the cunning of the demons running this world has been mighty and relentless since 2020, know that God has marked you as His own.

Being one of God's children, you will make it till the end, you will come out unscathed. When our earthly paradise dawns, completely free of evil, you will be fully awakened to your true power and your true essence. And then, together, we will help all our fellow humans that have been victimised, rendered 'blind' and 'deaf'. We will help them, but only if they let us. Because free will is the supreme law.

For now, it is impossible to help those who refuse to listen. We can't wake them up. Only God can do that and He will have to show them. Not long now... I pray they will all survive the Revelations to come. And so it is.

Imagine an elephant. It is walking down the savannah. All of a sudden, a gnat hits the elephant hard at full speed. This has the inevitable effect of making the elephant change its course and veer sideways.... And if you can believe that, then you can also believe what NASA showed us yesterday. i.e. a 'giant asteroid' (hint - CGI, not real) getting hit by a 'NASA spaceship' that you could hardly see on the surface and making it change its course, thus saving the world. I just can't stop laughing.

Remember what I told you. They are prepping you for the narrative of 'danger coming from the sky'. They are prepping you for the alien invasion!!! It's all fake!!!! The elites are trying to save their skins and failing every time. Humanity is awake!!!!

Let the pathetic fear-mongers do their thing on the media. Nuclear war? Famine? Asteroids? Hostile aliens? Cuh! I hope you're chortling at it like I am. It's futile what they're doing, but they're getting desperate now. Turn your back to it. It's all lies! Our world is transforming into a paradise behind the scenes. Keep your heart light glowing! It is God inside you. And He will never let you get lost in the darkness. Every day, the light in our world is getting stronger, drowning out the darkness, transforming us, strengthening us.

Keep the faith and keep imagining our perfect new world emerging. A world of peace, prosperity, freedom, justice and unity. Sending love.

Message #5

Keep your head high and keep on smiling. A new world is dawning and it's free and joyful for all the people! I truly tell you. It involves street parties in every corner! Remember, darkness is at its worst just before the dawn. But it's just darkness, it cannot hurt us.

This is where we are now. Things are about to get darker, much darker, but I need you to understand. I need you to remember: It's only going to be smoke and mirrors! Sit tight, keep praying, and keep believing. Paradise on Earth is almost here now.

God's people have now taken over from the reign of evil, and they are resetting everything in our world right now, every aspect of our lives, behind the scenes. To give us freedom, health, peace and prosperity forever more. To remove evil from our midst. Forever.

The sheer joy of our new lives is impossible to imagine, but use your imagination, and do your best to feel it as if it's already here. This is how human beings are supposed to bring on miracles. Each on their own, and all collectively, with the blessing of God. Love and light.

Message #6

You are powerful, more than you know. The darkness that's fallen upon you, upon the whole world, may be deep, but it is only temporary. Every day, even if you don't realize it, you do your bit to shine your light upon the darkness so it may disperse.

We're all doing it together. You are not alone... You've been through some extremely gruesome days, but you've remained steadfast. Like a piece of coal, you've suffered the pressure but it wasn't for nothing. It turned you into an exquisite diamond!

God knows what He is doing with you. Even the hardest times have been important. Necessary. Nothing has been a coincidence. Nothing has been a judgement from God, but a needed process, a lesson from a kind Teacher. Your hardships, your lessons, will sooner or later make you realize how strong you are.

Be proud for having made it up to here. Give yourself a pat in the back and keep going! Your kind heart is doing all the work, even if you don't know it yet. Your light matters. Keep shining it. You're doing so well!

Make forgiveness and love for yourself and others a daily exercise. Make gratitude and joy the ultimate pursuits inside your heart. No matter the pain you may be feeling. Once you try these practices, you'll realize this is actually the fastest way to extinguish pain.

Remember. You're not just a name with a body. You're LIGHT, a divine energy that no darkness can ever harm, let alone extinguish. You are a spark of God. Divine, powerful, eternal. Act as if you know it, and soon, you will remember your true essence.

Message #7

Keep your vibration high, let nothing get to you. This 3D matrix we're standing on is an illusion created by the darkness. They had us prisoners all our lives, but now we are awakening en masse. We are leaving this hell on Earth behind as we're moving from darkness into light, returning to 'The Garden of Eden'. As God promised. We're moving towards a 5D Earth, and releasing ourselves from the Wheel of Karma. Truly free for the first time, with only love and acceptance inside of us.

God, in His own timing, will awaken us all in an instant, and then you'll be presented with a choice. Where you want to live. Will you choose to remain on the 3D matrix of strife and evil? Or will you join your brothers and sisters who seek paradise on Earth, a world of bliss and love?

For now, we're all still stuck in the 3D world... but those who are awakened now know it is an illusion, and they see the lies and the deception of the dark ones. The TV pantomime continues... and the elites are still at it, but all their attempts are futile now. No matter what they try through their media, and their criminal organisations like the WHO, the Bilderberg group, the World Economic Forum... nothing will work any more.

GOD is in power now. The masses of the awakened are increasing. They don't believe them any more. They no longer fall in their stupid traps. Their TV propaganda is a ridiculous circus in the eyes of those who know the truth. Their puppets on TV are ridiculous, paper cut-out figures. It's so laughable if you know the truth... that the TV is a prison for your mind, keeping you in fear, and thus controlled. Once you realize that, you'll become impervious to their pathetic scare tactics. Go out and live your life. Get plenty of sunshine! Now, you need it more than ever before.

No matter what they had you believe, the truth is that if you stay with God you will remain safe through this satanic mess. 100%. God is watching over us all, and His angels are here by the zillions to watch as we wake up and break free from our shackles. This has never happened before in the history of Earth. Monumental events are coming. Do you feel the energy shifting? It's picking up speed now, we're so close. Stand tall in the knowing of your true essence, your immense power.

Soon, you'll know, one of the greatest truths. That we're not alone in the universe. Evil created the separation between us and the angelic world. The walls are crumbling now. Keep close to God. It'll all be revealed. Love and light.

Message #8

Back in the summer 2020, I became fully awake to the world we live in. And it has been the toughest time of my life. For someone like me, who's had mountains of pain, even from an early age, that says a lot, believe me.

That August, a dear friend who works for the British medical system and receives direct instructions from the WHO, told me a few things that helped me put everything in order in my mind. The truth made sense immediately. The lies on TV never did and still don't. Actually, they're so preposterous I find them hilarious.

Anyway... Since August 2020, just like every other person who's awake to the truth around the world right now, I've alienated or lost friends. I got laughed at, even by family members, while online friends unfriended me or blocked me by the hundreds. They called me crazy, stupid, hateful, embarrassing, disgusting, and shameful. But it's okay. And when the truth is out, I'll never say to anyone, 'I told you so'.

When they see I was right all along, their ego will probably stop them from contacting me again to say, 'I am sorry'. But it's okay, I get it. Ego is a mighty opponent and it's a tremendous feat to keep it in check. But God will make it all all right in the end. We are good. It's all good. Just hang in there.

If you have a healthy curiosity and an open mind, I expect you will survive this satanic mess. Even if you don't believe in God. It's your kind heart that matters to God, you see. And even if you don't believe in Him, He believes in you...

But if you're rigid in your thinking and your beliefs, if you hurt or wrong other people, if you cannot forgive yourself and others, if you are surrendered to your ego and refuse to consider the possibility that you have been duped by the powers that be, then, I am sorry to say, it'll be a bumpy ride for you as of this fall... and I pray you will make it.

Remember this: The only enemy you will be facing in the months to come, is your ego and your ego alone...

Message #9

The elites stand no chance. No trick in their satanic books will ever work to bring on the New World Order.

Love and forgive yourself, first of all, and then do the same for all your brothers and sisters. Down at soul level, we are all pure kindness and benevolence, we are all God. It was evil that robbed us of our earthly paradise. They caused all our strife, our lack, our traumas, they turned us against each other. Forgiveness towards yourself and others comes easy once you understand these things. Stay close to God and prepare. God is here with a multitude of angels and they are going to blast the satanic elites back to hell where they belong. Then paradise on Earth will be reinstated.

The elites are getting desperate to save their skins and will try to scare you out of your wits in the months to come, but God will protect you. But, you must surrender to God's will and keep your ego in check. Ego creates all your fears and is a prison for your mind. It keeps you upset about the past and fearful of your tomorrows. When, in truth, only the present moment really exists. Only each passing moment. Your ego chatters endlessly and thus stops you from ever finding peace at any given moment...

It also separates you from your fellow humans. It makes you see only division, when your true nature is unity with all others. So... in essence... you have only your ego to fight in the months to come, believe me. Nothing else.

Message #10

God made us all sovereign beings, with the power to decide about ourselves everything. Both big and small. It is not in our true nature to be bullied or to be governed by tyrants and take it. So stop giving your power away, stop looking to others for information on the plate. Seek and find the answers for yourself using an open, critical mind.

If you find it hard to decide the truth on anything or to solve a specific problem, then ask God to show you the way forward. This is also something we are meant to do on our own.

How do you ask God anything? Simple. Seek a place to sit on your own, just breath and empty your mind. Place a hand on your heart and focus on your breath. Think of all the things you are thankful for. Then think of those you love and care for. This will help you attain brain-heart coherence. From that peaceful, healing space, ask God any questions you may have, and He will provide the answers in the stillness.

This is your true nature. And this is the best way I know to receive answers, to receive the truth, to receive assistance from the Creator. Sending blessings.

Believe me, when I tell you: The world is NOT going to hell in a hand basket. This is the lie the media will have you believe. Because they don't want you happy and healthy. They want you depressed and sick - or worse, if they can help it. The truth is the world is in great hands right now. It's all going to be all right in the end. You are safe. You have NOTHING to fear. The enslavement of humanity under a one-world government that the satanists wanted to implement will never come to pass.

A free and happy new world is coming instead, thanks to the Alliance and all the patriots, researchers, and free thinkers around the world who illuminated the masses. I have always been a truth seeker myself, and I feel compelled to do my bit. I've been doing this since March 2021 and I still don't care who calls me names or thinks bad of me. All I care is to help others, to awaken them to the actual truth of the world. And if I can help just one man or woman put two and two together and escape the matrix of lies and despair to help themselves and their loved ones, I will be content.

If this post has helped you in some way, I hope that you will choose to stay firm in your faith for our bright future, starting today. It will be a resplendent future of freedom, sovereignty and prosperity for all. With Gesara, with Starlink, with QFS. With 6,000 released patents for new healing, transportation, free energy technologies and so much more. With peace worldwide. Forever.

Remember Daniel in the Lions' Den... He didn't falter for a moment before the wild beasts that threatened to tear him to pieces. So stand firm. Close your ears to the sirens of doom. Remember, they are all lies. Use your discernment. Ask your heart and it will tell you what to accept and what to discard. Start from my post. Only you decide what rings true. For you.

A cup of ocean water is still 'the ocean'. Not in terms of quantity, of course, but in terms of quality. The water in the cup has every quality of the ocean. Same colour, taste, density and so on... Likewise, each one of us carries a spark of God inside. Every soul IS God. Quality-wise. And God, as you know, is omnipotent. Remember that.

Don't let anyone ever make you think that you are weak, unprotected, defenceless or powerless.

Soon, the floodgates of truth will open and everyone will know what evil has done to Humanity, the extent of their crimes. The reveal will be unbearable to those who can't imagine evil exists, who think this world is fair and proper, but it has to be done.

Everyone must know what the evil elites have done to us all our lives. To innocent children especially. Paradise on Earth cannot come unless all the evil muck has been cleared. And to make that happen we all need to witness it.

So hang in there, brothers and sisters. If you hold God close to your heart I am sure He is giving you clarity to see too what I can see! To see that the masses are awakening fast now! We've long reached critical mass.

We, the awakened, are shifting the entire human collective now effortlessly towards the Great Awakening. Everyone will soon wake up to the truth.

Even the ones that are still kicking and screaming, refusing to see. But it's only a matter of time until even they will see. Evil is getting exposed fast now, coming into light for those who care to look.

Every day now, truth comes out all over the Internet, even on the TV news, and all the mainstream media - the enemy's stronghold. And, soon, that will fall too.

There is no stopping it now. It started with a steady trickle, now it's turning into a stream. Soon, it will be a flood. And so it is.

Message #13

I am posting this for anyone among my brothers and sisters who needs to hear these words of comfort today. God is in the ether, permeating everything, down to the last grain of sand, the last drop of water. Forget the old bearded man in the sky - that's a lie. It separates you from the true nature of God, putting distance between you and Him.

The truth? God is never far away. He never left us. He lives inside your heart, inside your soul. And He put angels in charge of you, always protecting you, always looking out for you. But only if you pray, if you call them close. This is because of free will. The ultimate law that no one is allowed to break. Not even God and His angels can help you unless you ask them to.

God is an all-loving, all-healing, all-protecting consciousness that is omnipresent, omniscient and omnipotent. Therefore, help is always on the way if you're open to receive. If you need strength or help today, remember, open your heart to all possibilities and God WILL deliver.

Do not depend or rely on the doctors, the media or the government. The systems they serve belong to the dark side. These systems manipulate, they enslave, they ensnare. They were built for this very purpose. Only God saves, only God never lets anyone down, only God always tells the truth if you care to quieten yourself down, focus on your heart centre and really listen. All you have to do is ask. God takes care of all the creatures in nature, providing sustenance to all, and clothes all flowers in the field with breath-taking colours.

Would He ever let man or woman, His most magnificent creatures, ever go without? Or even perish? Or let our beautiful planet, our Gaia, the jewel of the universe, ever get destroyed? No. Never. That's why there is NOTHING in our future that could ever scare me. The incessant talk of nuclear war and asteroids, comets, bad aliens, it's all media fairy tales of the dark ones. To keep us in fear. Don't fall in their trap. There is only one kind of 'alien' on and over earth right now and they are angels. Meaning no harm. Loving us beyond our understanding.

Yes, multitudes of God's angels are here to witness the end of days of the evil world we've known all our lives, to protect us from the receding evil that's been plaguing us, to witness the awakening of Humanity and the dawn of the Golden Age - the transition to paradise on earth. This is where we are at. We are about to witness the tearing of the veil.

We live in an evil world that is like a false matrix for our minds. The dark ones created it to dumb us down thousands of years ago. This is how they hold us captive. By lying, by manipulating and by withholding the truth from us about all things. They have lied to us about everything... Yes, the dark ones hijacked our planet and enslaved us and as you know it's recorded in the Bible. And God allowed them to do this because of their own free will. To see where it would lead. But the dark ones recently went too far, trying to destroy Humanity all together, and that, God would never allow. So, now, we are about to escape our evil prison as God and all the ancient prophecies foretold.

We are finally peeking through the veil, off and on now. Start looking. Really looking. What is really happening? No matter what I tell you about what I see, you'll never believe me. You have to look for yourself. Start trusting. Remember your childhood. You were wide-eyed back then, innocent, knowing nothing but REALLY... you knew everything. But they made you forget.

Now is the time to remember. To believe in 'magic' again. That anything is possible in the eyes of God. To believe in the omnipotence of God Creator as well as your own. The dark cloud is lifting. So be like a child and trust. The truth will come to you. The memories are kept safe inside. They'll start to resurface soon and you will be reactivated with all your ancient memories and your original, supernatural DNA, the way God created you in the first place, before the dark ones tampered with it.

You think you're just a body with a name? An identity? No. You are a powerful light being, having an experience in a physical body. You came from the stars. You willingly descended to this dark matrix to help humanity awaken in this specific lifetime. That's why we're all here. And you're doing so great.

Just by standing quietly in your truth, praying, meditating, visualising, shining your light, and you are powerful beyond your understanding. You are divine, eternal, and you are about to remember who you really are. Stay in faith and hope, my brothers and sisters. Visualize and think of only the best, the most blissful, the happiest outcomes. Fear is your only enemy.

In reality, there is no enemy left to speak of. God and His angels are here, protecting us, and everything is working out perfectly in the divine plan. Everything is under control. You are doing wonderfully and you've gone so far already. You deserve credit for standing strong, so strong, through this satanic mess.

No matter how dark it gets in the following months, it will be only temporary. Smoke and mirrors that cannot and will not touch you. Believe me when I say, the darkness we were living in all our lives was even darker - we just didn't know. But it'll all lift, the world showered brightly with heavenly light. And then, there will be no more evil. Only joy, only godliness, justice and truth. For all God's creatures. Love and light.

Keep looking up to the sky and saying thank you, no matter how dreadful you think the world is. I am telling you, all's good on Earth, our beautiful Gaia. The pain and destruction you see are either part of the Divine Plan or the aftermath of evil's hateful acts against the people. And yet, so many catastrophes have been averted by God already, even though very few know that among the masses. The angels are looking down from the sky, always protecting, always deflecting the arrows of the enemy directed on us.

And soon, the wrath of God will come from the sky to rain on the heads of all those who created hell here for us. God is the ultimate saviour and when He delivers the punishment, every single man, woman and child on our beautiful Gaia will know. Everyone will know God then, if they ever doubted His existence, and they will also see the face of evil on earth in all its ugly detail...

So hang in there, if you, like me, have already awakened... It doesn't matter who believes us, or if they think we are mad. Only God's Divine Plan matters, only love... Unity among the people, the Great Awakening and the transition of Humanity to the Golden Age.

It's all coming, and no one can stop it now. We are on the last stretch. God will have the last word. Once evil is exposed and dealt with, God's angels will come down here to dry all the tears from our eyes.

Do not be afraid of the financial/bank crash that's coming. It's evil... so it has to go. We will never be liberated from evil otherwise. The new (Quantum) financial/banking system is already in place now, running in the background, so the downtime will be very short. Just have some extra cash and food at home at all times so you're not terribly put out.

Remember this in the dark days to come when things go crashing down... God is in control always and He has people here doing His work. God and His angels won't let evil touch a single hair on our heads as His plan unfolds. But you need to do your bit... Keep praying for the Divine Plan to play out perfectly, keep dreaming of our radiant tomorrow in every blissful detail you can muster.

We all create our world together in our minds and hearts, every day. So beware of what you create. Beware of your thoughts and emotions. God made us creator beings. Evil never told us this so they can control us. They raised us to feel defenceless and weak. So start to be aware of your own personal power now... It is your true nature to create your own life, and you have power way beyond your understanding. Together, we will find our paradise at the end of this terrible journey. Love and light.

Are you afraid of the future? Unlike what the media will have you believe, the truth is we are not powerless to what is to come. The truth is WE THE PEOPLE shape our own future. The media has a dark agenda. Ignore it. Turn your back to it. Physically and mentally. To succumb to fear and to feel helpless is to give over your control, to give them your consent for the terrible things they meant to do. Without your fear they have nothing. They are powerless.

See in your mind's eye how beautiful you want the future of Humanity to be and CREATE THE WORLD. This is our true nature. We are creator beings. The powers that be and our society indoctrinated us from a small age in a way that ensured we have no idea just how powerful we are in creating our own world...

All together, we are shaping it right now. So stop fearing the worst and instead affirm your will for how YOU WANT it to be. How wonderful a world can you imagine? Take time every day to do just that. To speak about it as if it's here already. This is how we create.

Thankfully, the big decisions about how the world is going to be have already been taken by good people in this world who had the power, and God's permission, to fight evil and win. And because of this, there is no going back to how things used to be. Forget war, forget disease, forget injustice, crime and violence. Forget poverty and working out of need in jobs we hate. Forget trauma, rage and anger. Forget godlessness and evil.

All these things are on their way out, never to be seen again in our world. All the pain we are going through are just the birthing pains of our new perfect paradise on earth that's emerging from a divine perspective.

'The Ascension' and 'The Great Awakening' of Humanity are underway. Look these terms up and the information will open your eyes to a new empowering reality. The one the powers that be never allowed you to perceive or suspect. You will never be the same again once you start to realize what is really happening in our world right now. Our future is not just perfect, IT'S RESPLENDENT! We are going to enjoy world prosperity, peace, freedom, justice, perfect health, and technology beyond our wildest dreams.

Don't fall for the fear narrative that talks of destruction, war, famine and disease. This is the enemy of the people trying to hold you back, trying to put fear in your heart so they can keep controlling the masses. Just have some extra food at home for the reset... For a week or two... Because God's powers on earth need to destroy the corrupt financial system to apply a new one that will be fair and will benefit all. The collapse is underway.

The media lies about the reasons because they're controlled by the enemy of the people. But they cannot stop the collapse or the reset. When the corrupt financial system comes crashing down, they will be rendered completely powerless forever more.

To clarify, this is not The Great Reset of the demons that used to rule the world, the likes of Klaus Schwab of Davos. That was an evil reset that involved the enslavement and destruction of Humanity. The reset that is about to happen is the financial reset of God's forces on earth, and they are in perfect control. We will be protected at all times. Remember that, and let no fear enter your heart needlessly.

The darkness has been ruling the world here for millennia, but their time on Earth is over by God's decree. God would never accept Humanity to perish. His love for us is unlimited and endless. So, by God's decree, the evil forces on Earth are waning now, their plans to destroy Humanity will never play out, and they know it.

Keep your heart light shining. It is time to wake up to your true nature. To find out the truth about yourself, God, the world and the whole Universe, and to hear all the lies we have been told all our lives. To look at evil straight in the eye and to finally know who are the true heroes and who are the true demons of the world.

God is here. He has come with multitudes of angels to claim His own. And They won't let evil harm a single hair off our heads. Focus on your God connection inside your heart and keep radiating your light of truth, faith, bravery, and kindness. That is all you need to do.

Resist the fear narrative of the enemy and stay with God. Affirm your love and your acceptance to Him and He will keep you safe and calm through the storm. You're doing so well. Keep it up. Love and light.

Message #16

Keep smiling... It'll all be all right in the end. God and His angels are here, removing monsters from our midst. Hold on to your faith. It seems to me that in this dark, murky, inky world that the devil concocted, there's nothing else to hold on to right now but our faith in God. Everything is topsy-turvy.

Heroes look like monsters and monsters look like heroes, and unless you ask God to show you the truth you are bound to get lost in the vast satanic sea of manipulation and deception. I can now see the godless people getting caught in the stream that Satan created to take away with him as many as he can. But these people will perish from no fault of my own or yours. Because God-loving people like you and me have given them plenty of warning. But everything is choice.

So keep on going and don't falter. God will make it all all right in the end, even for the unfaithful, at soul level. As long as their heart is innocent, God will give them a chance too, to know Him and decide. Once our world is cleared of evil, all the innocents will know God and will rejoice when His Divine plan has ended, when the New Earth emerges, perfect and blissful for all who dwell in it. And so it is. Love and light

Keep putting one foot forward. Don't give up. Where we're going it is eternally sunny. Parties in every corner. Remember that! Keep putting one foot in front of the other until we're fully out of this satanic mess. Keep close to our Almighty God and all your brothers and sisters, despite your differences, and you'll find comfort.

In Unity, there is no sadness, there is no desperation. Concentrate on helping or supporting someone else and your troubles will go away... That is how God works. So keep going, close to others, close to God. We're so close now to coming into the light. It may get darker soon, but it'll only be because it's always darkest at the very end.

Remember every hero's journey you've ever watched in movies? Yes, that's it. The 'cavalry' always comes when the hero is about to 'die'. This is a universal blueprint. It can't be any different in this story. So keep going. And don't let fear get to you when the deeper darkness falls.

All that matters is the happy ending. So trust. Deep down, you all know how this ends. It ends with paradise, perfect freedom and joy, Godliness. Soon, all the darkness will disperse and the sun will shine upon our faces. Forever more. Love and light.

Message #18

Keep on smiling! Remember, God and His angels have our backs. Close your ears to the lies of the darkness. God is waiting up ahead, waiting to welcome us into the New Earth, our earthly paradise, and Jesus, our brother, is walking now with us. He knows the way. We can never get lost. Take no notice of the many tricks of the dark... Listen only to the gentle whisper of the light inside your heart.

Keep looking ahead to our bright, glorious future, here on this beautiful Earth. We will soon start living here in utter bliss with God and His Angels, once evil has been completely removed from our midst. God promised this to us. And, unlike the devious Satan, who has fooled so many, God keeps His promises.

Keep affirming your love to God, and your desire to know the New Earth, and He will welcome you there, into His fatherly arms. It is important that you make it clear to God who you're siding with, though. Remember that. God will give you this paradise only if you steer clear of evil and affirm it to Him that it is so.

Open your heart and love your brothers and sisters. All of them. Tolerate your differences. Let them be. Forgive and forget the past hurts. Satan keeps you distant from others so he can control you. Resist the division he creates. Accept everything in others and let yourself free to unite with them all. Only love matters, nothing else does. Forgive them, no matter what caused animosity or coldness, and forgive yourself too. Fully. Unconditionally.

Satan had shrouded the whole world with his evil ways, his lies and his cunning, all our lives. It's been impossible to escape. But God loves everything and everyone. He knows how hard it has been for us. He is forgiving and accepting, his love for us, immeasurable, impossible to comprehend. So be like God. Love yourself and others and love will heal it all inside your heart and, consequentially, in the world too.

Do you think that's impossible? Know that only your ego stands in the way. And it may look or feel like a beast inside you at times, but It's only a small child. Caress it inside your heart... That child is scared, hurt, and it is a part of YOU, after all. So, love it, as it needs tons of reassurance, but at the same time, you have to rule it with a steady hand and a steady mind.

The real you, the immortal being of light that you are, knows better than the ego. You are infinitely more powerful. You are divine and only your ego stands in the way of you remembering who you really are. Beyond the ego, there is God.

So be the adult that keeps it in line and keep on going. Step beyond the fear and the selfishness of the ego, and you will soon start to break free, to see more clearly. We are getting so close now to the New Earth.

I tell you. In a way, we're already there. Simply because there is no time. This is an illusion too. See it in your mind's eye, feel it in your heart, and you will know paradise before we even get there. Only then, will you start to realize that paradise is not a place, but a state of mind, a state of being. Love and light

Wake up every day with a smile on your face. What you're dreaming of is coming, and it's coming BIG! And while you wait, connect with nature, and nurture your inner light that God put inside your heart. Every day, we're all getting closer to our paradise on Earth. A world without evil! Can you imagine? Just how blissful will it be? Just how miraculous?

Our compromised minds and our greatly traumatized hearts from years of knowing evil, cannot grasp the idea of paradise on Earth, I know... But God and His Angels are here, and they know. They will bless us and remind us, just how sweet life on Earth can be without evil. The way it was, right at the start, before evil came.

Hang in there... and stay with God. Close your eyes and ears to the evil that seeks to keep you paralysed with fear. The days when they used to thrive off our fear and ignorance are over. Now, millions of people have awakened to the truth, enough to shift the consciousness of the entire human collective so we can all awaken together. This is called THE ASCENSION.

Unlike what evil has told you, we are all-powerful, energetic beings by nature. The light within us is accelerating right now. This raises our vibration so we can ascend energetically from the 3rd dimension to the 5th. Energetically, we are shifting gears. And where we're going, evil, to put it quite simply, cannot possibly exist.

The shadows you see now are just shadows. There is no substance behind them any more. No power. No real threat. And they are rapidly dissolving. The hourglass has been turned over. It's only a matter of time.

So take heart. And TRUST... BELIEVE in our perfect and bright tomorrow, starting from today. Evil has you believe the world is going to hell in a handbasket. The opposite is true. We are heading back to paradise at last! Our protectors are here, making sure nothing can harm us collectively.

They are God's angels, whom God entrusted with our protection from the beginning of time. They have returned, gathered here in large numbers, and they now watch over us. They are attracted to our homes and hearts by our gentle pleas and prayers. Welcome them into your lives and they will watch over you...

Know that they are powerful beyond understanding. Before their eyes, evil looks like dust in the wind... The evil ones have been disconnected from the Earth plane and fading. There's nothing evil can do to hurt us any more.

Stay with God, declare your love for Him, and He and his angels will keep you safe. This is the only protection you really need to have inside the storm we're weathering.

The storm is nearly over but it will get darker soon. When it gets the darkest at the very end, know that God and His angels will remain in control. Know that the dawn will come soon after that, flooding the world with light, the darkness dissolved from Earth and kept at bay for 1,000 years, just like God promised us in the Revelation.

Message #20

Please. Close your ears to the fearmongering. There's zero chance of nuclear war. But I'll tell you this. A financial collapse is coming. The swift system is corrupt. The whole financial system is because it served the elites to create debt for the world while they printed worthless money for their own criminal purposes.

Nothing was backed by gold. This financial system needs to go. But we will be disrupted only for a little while, because QFS (the new quantum financial system, backed by gold and unhackable) is ready to take its place and is already running behind the scenes.

Please take heed even if you don't believe me: Just in case, have extra packs and tins of food at home for a few days. About 10-20 days. Think also about food you can eat without having to cook it in case of electricity cuts. Store some bottles of water. Basic cosmetics. Medicine. Food for your pets. Always have petrol in the car and some cash at home for emergencies. When the collapse comes, the ATMs won't work.

I pray you take heed so you won't suffer needlessly. Things will collapse all over the place, including the Internet and the media, but you need to remember: God is in control. At all times. All the downtime is planned, nothing will be 'wrong', just part of the process.

This is a huge and genius undertaking by God-fearing people who got together to take down an evil enemy that has plagued this planet and Humanity for millennia. The war is almost over and we have already won it. Paradise here on earth awaits us. And we are going to celebrate for days with street parties in every corner! Believe it! It's coming.

But first, we need to lay low a little longer. Right at the end, we need to keep calm, keeping close to God in these coming weeks of panic. It will help to not watch the news, or at least very little, while the media still work. The news lies and plays with your mind. Gnaws at your visceral sense of security.

Say no to the TV and turn to nature that has a wealth of gifts to give us right now. Turn to quiet contemplation, and of course, to God. Our Almighty God and our brother, Jesus Christ, will help you stay calm in the storm.

Put on the Full Armour of God, hold on to your faith, and He will whisper inside of you. He will tell you He won't let anyone harm a single hair on your head. He'll give you the courage and the determination to become who you came here on earth to be: Free, blissful, and sovereign.

And that you will be, at the end of this holy war, once the last shadow of evil has been eradicated from the earth. In a world without evil, you will find yourself in paradise. So quickly, so effortlessly, you won't believe your eyes and ears. Love and light.

Keep your faith in God burning inside of you, no matter what! We are safe with God, 100%. Declare your love to Him and He will keep you safe through this unprecedented storm for the collective soul. Fear is put upon you daily by the media for a reason. Resist! Never lose sight of our perfect, free and happy world emerging.

Every day only brings it closer. I've told you many times before. God is at work with his angels here on Earth, right now! They are cleansing the Earth from Evil. The world has been run for millennia by an evil regime of devil worshippers. But they've recently gone too far... So God has intervened. And their reign is now over.

Evil is fading away fast all over the world and the criminals are emerging to the light. Sex offenders of all kinds mostly as that was the devil's favourite game. The most famous criminals will be exposed last. Only good things will happen from now on to us. And very soon, amazing things, that will delight you and free your lives overnight. Freedom to live for all, and peace on Earth are guaranteed ALREADY, no matter what you hear.

I repeat. There is ZERO possibility of war. Remember that! There is ZERO possibility of nuclear warheads being activated anywhere on Earth. The people are safe in all nations. Only their evil masters are shaking right now in their boots. They know what's coming. Absolute deliverance from our evil masters is coming soon. The serving of Divine Justice too.

Use your faith and your intuition to discern the truth. Turn your back on Big Media. Do not watch the scary 'fairy tale' played on the news. Seek truth from your open-minded friends. Those who say 'crazy stuff' are the only news sources that are really trying to help you. The only ones who have hope for you and make sense. Big Media only confuses and depresses. There's a reason for that. Your politicians, your TV doctors, your favorite reporters, celebs and royals, they all lie to you.

Justice will be served to all of them, because their crimes are many. Switch off the TV and go out to meet people instead. Connect with nature. Keep your day positive. End each day on a happy note. And most of all, stay with God... God is in your loved ones, in nature, in the sunlight and the bird song, in the eyes of your pets. In every passing moment spent in peace, hope, and self-assurance. Love and light

What started with Prince Andrew is an avalanche that won't stop until all the celebrated people of the world who have committed heinous crimes are exposed to the light in the same manner. I have told you many times. The Earth is being cleansed of evil.

This is the Great Awakening of Humanity and it is well underway. It will lead to Divine Justice and the purging of evil from Earth 100%. It will lead to paradise on Earth for the good, everyday people of the planet, like you and me. Soon, we will all know that we have lived all our lives under a criminal regime that worships the devil and has had us all live like work slaves - and cash cows - for their profit.

They have been stealing our children for their disgusting activities. They have been poisoning our food, drink, and air systematically so they can benefit from our dis-ease. And they have been using films and TV to keep us under a spell of dark magic and deception.

But this is ending soon... thanks to the forces of good working systematically right now on the planet to expose and purge all evil. So I give you this advice, and please consider it carefully:

Start detaching yourselves now from your favourite royals, sportsmen, Hollywood stars, singers and legendary music bands... From your favourite religious figures, politicians, and TV presenters too. They worship the devil, while appearing ethical, decent and even holy, and they take every opportunity to sneakily declare their religion in their photographs with the use of pyramids, upside down crosses, and the all-seeing (one) eye of Lucifer.

The vast majority of them have been doing crimes that the mind boggles to hear. The more famous they are, the higher the probability because the evil system that has been running the world spews out anyone unwilling to cooperate with them and accept their satanic religion.

Brace yourselves. Most of their crimes involve innocent children. Detach yourselves... Stop idolising them because when the truth hits you while you still adore them, the shock will crush you. One more thing. The world has been turned into a movie since 2020... So much of what we see is not real and the technological advancements are beyond our understanding, making it all possible to trick us. Open your minds to new possibilities.

Now is the time to approach your spiritual friends and your truth-seeking friends. Yeah, the ones you've been calling crazy... Now is the time to really listen to them, as hard as it may be. They have a perspective that makes sense, while the media no longer does. Stop allowing the TV to put fear in your heart. Things are not scary... Not with the TV turned off. Turn to prayer, turn to your hearts for discernment. Connect with your loved ones and share your intuitive thoughts. Insist on positivity and flush out fear and negativity from your minds and hearts. Use faith. Use prayer. This is how we are supposed to get information. Not from the TV. Not from the newspapers. Use Divine Intuition and become empowered.

I pray God will bring you light and comfort in your heart. This is where He lives, after all, and you are a part of Him. Thanks to Him, I have zero fear. I feel secure about the future 100%. And, in case you wonder, I have no qualms about telling you these 'crazy' things. I care not for other people's judgement. It's not my business what people think of me. I know full well that a person who judges is plagued by trauma.

This is what causes someone to be triggered and judge. We only judge in others what's inside our own shadow. But hang in there, if what I say is causing you to judge... God is clearing all trauma and all shadow... Soon, there won't be any trauma left in people any more than there will be evil in this world. But you have to do your bit. You have to open your heart and let Divine Love in.

I want this empowerment and this freedom that I experience, this blind faith of our bright future, to be felt by all of you. That's why I am speaking out and giving you unsolicited advice. If you don't wish to hear it, it's your right. It's all good. I am just doing what my heart is compelling me to do to help my fellow human beings who care to listen. Sending love and light to you all.

Evil has ruled this planet for thousands of years, keeping humanity in a state of slavery and dark mind control. And now, it is time for us to awaken from this dark spell. To realize we have been slaves, that we have been lied to, all our lives. The truth is, this planet was created only for the benevolent children of God. For the supernatural, creator beings that God created. For creatures of the Light.

But Evil came as an intruder and changed our make up. Brought us to this wretched state where we live in poverty, oppression, injustice, division, strife and dis-ease. And now, as it says in all the ancient prophecies, it is time for Evil to be expelled.

They should not, and soon will not, have a place among us any more. Enough of us are now awake. We know this is happening and daily voice our wish. We do not consent for anyone evil to live among us any more. The Earth, our beautiful Gaia, is being bathed in powerful light energies from the heavens and getting cleansed, getting prepared for its rebirth to become a paradise, as God promised us.

During this process, the energies of evil suffer. They cannot stand these heavenly energies and they are being dismantled. As they get dissolved by the light, they rattle and shake... and you get to hear about evil in all its forms... Scandals of all kinds, violence, murders, sex crimes, racism...

And this will continue until the most prominent figures of the world who have been doing evil acts secretly are exposed last. Who are these people? They are the most revered, the most famous, the richest, the most admired. And soon, as they fall, one by one, we will watch. Until there is not a single one left to hurt us and our children. Soon, evil will no longer exist on the earth plane.

By then, it will be only a distant memory, in the back of the minds of all FREE and SOVEREIGN people, all around the world. We will choose to remember the evil people we once knew from these dark days - not with fear, not with pain, but only as an example, so that we can teach the next generations what Evil was once allowed to do on this planet.

So that, in future, the slightest act of evil and crime are eradicated without mercy and without an iota of tolerance. God is on our side and He is long decided. His Angels and Archangels are here. Evil stands no chance. And they are almost done.

We are in a war between Good and Evil, a war of the mind, unlike all the others Humanity has ever known since its birth. And now, we are at the Final Battle. Therefore, it is now imperative to declare on which side you stand. This holy war has been prophesied by all ancient civilisations of the world. So we know Light wins.

The satanic elite called Cabal that has been ruling the world behind the scenes, treating us like cattle and slaves for millennia, causing wars, poverty, crimes and injustice, can never win this war. They know this very well, too.

God wins. Light Wins. And there is nothing they can do about it. Where you stand in the Final Battle is important. Your eternal soul is in the balance. So it's important to declare now where you stand. You need to declare it clearly to God, who lives inside of you, if you choose to be with the Light.

This way, Paradise on Earth that is coming now fast, will be available to you too, when Evil disperses from the world at the end of the war. Here is a prayer I wrote, asking the Divine to guide my hand. You could say this out loud to declare your choice:

"Jesus Christ, Son of God, Have Mercy on Me. I love you and thank you for dying for me on the Cross, for your unfailing love for Humanity, and for being here to save my eternal soul from a dark fate, the one destined for the Evil Ones. I declare I wish to stay with you. You are my Brother, my Shield, my Fortress, my Shepherd. I side with you, and the Almighty God. I side with Light. With Goodness. I declare that I love myself fully and unconditionally, and that I no longer wish to carry the traumas of past hurts or any judgement for others.

"I am One with all my brothers and sisters here on Earth. I see in their pain and their faults, my very own. I hold no judgement for them or for me. I now know the Evil Ones were the ones that caused all pain and all separation among us, all our lives, and in the lives of our ancestors.

"I wish to become again the powerful and peaceful Light Being God intended for me to be, forever, when He created Gaia, our beautiful, living and breathing Earth, before the Evil Ones descended to reduce me down to this wretched level. Please bless me to survive this war, and protect me from the mind control, the negative forces, and any natural catastrophes caused by Evil in this final stand.

"The same I ask of my brothers and sisters in The Galactic Federation of Light, and our angels and archangels that protect and watch us from the Heavens. I ask all that so that I may taste the sweetness of life on New Earth, with you, my beloved Protector and Brother. A life of peace, prosperity, abundant joy, freedom and justice for all. Thank you, thank you, thank you, Jesus. Glory to you and to our Almighty God, forever and ever. And so it is."

Message #25

Once upon a time, there was a saintly monk, who lived in a monastery in a rural area. One day, he decided to leave the monastery and visit a cave on a mountain peak nearby to pray in total isolation for a day or two. Because he was old and weak, he took a young boy from a local farm with him to carry some food for him, a bottle of wine and a blanket.

After a short walk along a mountain trail, they reached the cave. At the entrance, the monk turned to the boy and said: "You stay here, young man. I need someone to stand guard, here at the entrance. I must concentrate on my prayer, and I need you to make sure that no one interrupts me!"

The boy nodded happily and stayed put while the monk went inside the cave to pray.

An hour later, the boy looked at the opposite peak and did a double take. "It can't be!" he muttered. He put up a hand to shield his eyes from the sun and take a better look. What he saw left no room for confusion. A huge demon was half-running, half-tumbling down the opposite slope at tremendous speed!

He had already reached the bottom of the mountain and was hurrying across the plain towards him. The mountain where the boy stood was not too high, and the boy knew that the demon would climb up in no time if he hurried in the same manner along its windy path.

The boy ventured a little out from the entrance of the cave and looked down. Surely enough, the demon was ascending fast. Now he was closer the boy could see him much more clearly and he began to shiver.

The demon was gigantic. He had a hunchback with stone-like protrusions, massive jaws of jagged teeth, green scaly skin, huge paws with curved long nails, and a long, lizard-like tail that hung low, its end sweeping and raising the dirt. As he continued to hurry up the path, he growled, foam spewing from his mouth.

The boy panicked. "Oh God, what do I do? Shall I disturb the monk? He made it clear he didn't wish to be interrupted. But the demon is fierce! Surely he means to kill us both!"

The boy tried all he could to decide but couldn't. Fear had caused his mind to turn numb and his knees to buckle. Frozen, all he could do now was watch as the demon approached. When he arrived at the peak and began to sprint towards him, the boy jerked backwards suddenly.

Next, he spun around and began to run for his life in the opposite direction, all the while praying the demon would stop, by miracle, and not hurt him or the monk. He kept running and didn't dare look back.

Back at the entrance, the demon stood to catch his breath for a moment. Then, he began to enter the cave stealthily, sure-footed...

Inside the cave, the monk heard the sound of a twig breaking, and it stirred him from the meditation he had sunk into. His eyes still firmly shut, he listened intently and now knew that someone was approaching. He could hear shallow breathing and wondered who that could be, standing behind him without speaking. He knew it couldn't possibly be the boy, since he had clearly asked him to stay at the entrance.

Why did he let someone in? I told him to stand guard! he thought, but then it occurred to him that maybe what he could hear was not human but a wild creature. What if it had overcome the boy? In his kind heart, the monk then felt compassion, his momentary frustration about the boy dispersed. Taking a deep breath, and praying to God that the boy was all right, the monk opened his eyes.

Then, he turned and saw the demon stare back at him with malice.

The moment the monk saw him, the demon disappeared, turning magically into smoke, as if he'd never existed.

The moral of the story? You have to look at evil... You have to know it's there. Your knowledge of its existence is the first step in getting rid of it. Face it, deal with it. Look at it squarely in the eyes without fear, and it will disperse.

You may not know it... But evil is getting purged from the world right now. Good people all over the world are shining their light to disperse the darkness. Do you see more sex or political scandals than normal on the news? How about murder, rape, molestation, abduction?

They are reported much more than normal, aren't they? Do you see the politicians' lies, tyrannical intentions, and hypocrisy exposed? This is what it looks like when good people follow God's Divine Plan to expose evil. Do you see the floods, earthquakes, hurricanes, volcano eruptions?

More than normal, right? Evil calls it 'climate change' but it's anything but.

Look... If you are a Christian, then you know Judgement Day and a heavenly New Earth are mentioned in the Bible. So why would anyone doubt me when I say that we're almost there right now? Who is anyone to think that the end of the world as we know it should happen in their own time? God won't ask you or me.

I am telling you. God has made His decision. There is no 'back to normal.' All that lies ahead of us is Judgement Day, then our paradise, right here on Earth. God's angels and archangels are here, and the Mass Awakening of humanity to this fact is imminent. We will meet them all in physical form, and they will help us create our paradise anew.

This is the way we were meant to live from the start. It is the way we did live in the very beginning, before Lucifer and his henchmen came to dumb us down and make us forget who we really are and how we're supposed to live.

Evil's reign of terror on earth is almost over. Judgement Day will see everyone who committed crimes against humanity face the consequences. Politicians, doctors, nurses, teachers, policemen, businessmen, royals, church leaders, celebrities... Some of them are people we trusted, loved, admired, worshipped even. And none of them will escape Judgement.

God's angels and archangels are here, their eyes on us all, and they admire us for our bravery as we endure this vile, satanical mess. They are by our side, swords in their hands as they destroy all the demons.

Do you still doubt? Just wait and see. Soon, it'll all come back to you. You have all the answers inside of you. God put them there and will activate the truth in you when it is time. I am telling you... you have nothing to worry about. Keep your Divine Light burning bright inside your heart. All together, we are dissolving the darkness. All together, we are God incarnate...

So what can you do to prepare for Judgement Day? First, understand that God loves us no matter what. God forgives all sins, but you must forgive yourself and others first. So pray for forgiveness. Love yourself unconditionally. Warts and all. This is the way God loves you! So you might as well love yourself the same way. Heal your wounds. Take the time to do that.

As your past hurts resurface (God does this for all of us right now), take the time to show acceptance and forgive yourself and others in order to heal from each painful memory. Just feel, then let it go. Sending you love and Light.

Message #27

The Military will deliver our freedom with Gesara. God bless them for what they do every day, all around the world! Gesara means no more tyranny. No more suffering for the children. No more war and poverty, no more dis-ease. 6,000 patents of new technologies are waiting to be rolled out, and they will make our world a paradise. If you believe in God, you surely believe in the Book of Revelation. So why are you doubting?

The people of faith among us had always anticipated the end of the world would come one day. Well, all I am saying is that it is happening now. Except, it is not the end, per se. Just the end of Evil and of human slavery.

For us, good and faithful people, it is a transformation from Hell to Paradise on Earth. So, listen, brothers and sisters! You're about to be blessed with the Divine Light of Truth. You're about to snap out of your trance and see the world with the eyes God has always meant for you. You're about to realize you have always been free, but, having been born under the spell of Evil, you were never told.

And now, realising you have been lied to all your lives, you need to forget everything you know in anticipation of the truth. You need to open your mind and heart. You need to trust...

I am telling you: The Military is making everything right for us. All you have to do is sit tight in a spirit of faith and hope. Pray. Fear nothing. It's all going to be fine for us. As for Evil, it is trembling in the shadows... It knows its days are over.

Message #28

When you were little and you strayed, out of sight, from your mother or father, how did you feel when you realised you were lost, for those few, panicky seconds when you looked around and the place seemed unfamiliar? When you were surrounded by only strangers?

And then, when you suddenly heard your parent's voice and you turned to see them putting out their hand, gesturing for you to approach, how did you feel then? Did you not feel relieved to see them among the strangers? Comforted to be lost no more? Didn't your parent seem relieved to hold you by the hand and lead you away from this strange place?

Well, God is like that... He allows you to stray, you see... Because He made you a sovereign being with free will. So when you stray and forget about Him, no matter for how long, He doesn't love you any less. Nor does He scorn you when you find your way back to Him. On the contrary, He always extends His hand, albeit out of sight, being an ever-loving parent, waiting for you to return.

God's love for you is the same as a parent's love. And even though you may have strayed, never delay your return to Him just because you feel unworthy. No matter how long you've been away, know your parent forever aches for your return.

There is unholy darkness out there, and God worries for you. So find your way home, or just call out His name... Talk to Him... He will always listen. And when you reunite, know He will be holding you in His arms, delighted to have you back. But here is an important detail... Returning to God is only possible when you realize you were allowed to stray in the first place.

This means you must realize that you have no sin because you did, so it is imperative that YOU have fully forgiven yourself first. You must love yourself in order to find God again. Because it is in your love for yourself that God will be able to find you.

So love, forgive, and have compassion, for both yourself and others. Your sense of judgement is what stops you from finding your way home. The Darkness put it there to trick you. God will find you the moment you hold in your heart acceptance for yourself and others, and only then you will be able to start taking those baby steps with Him back home. Where you belong.

So start today to love everyone, starting with yourself... And if you don't know how, talk to Him... Ask him to bless you with this love and He will. Go out every day and do something nice for a loved one, a friend, a perfect stranger, or for a neighbour in need.

Especially those who live alone are desperate for human contact. So go to them, even if it is to just offer a smile, or a half hour of your time to chat idly... I promise you, you will love and forgive yourself, and your sense of self-worth will grow when you begin to care, truly care, for other people... That's the key.

God is whispering more directions to you right now. Are you quiet enough to listen? Shut out the noise and listen... Your Divine Parent is looking for you. Where are you? How do you feel? Where do you need to go?

We are all holding hands and walking out of a tunnel, out of this darkness that has been placed upon us against our will. But we are sovereign beings, and being sovereign by birth, we have both the right and the power to walk away from it, to command it gone. God is here... leading us out, from darkness into light, and it's steadily glimmering in the distance.

In this journey, we have God by our side, every step of the way. Make no mistake. The evil one, the leading fallen angel, who created the darkness here in the beginning of time, has had his day on Earth. Now, it is our turn to rule the Earth, with the almighty God being the only one to answer to.

Now is the time to live on paradise on Earth. The mass awakening of Humanity happens every day, as we make our way from darkness into light. And if you have thought all your life that God has abandoned us, you are wrong, dear one... God allowed him, the most evil, to have his day, that's all. Because he too, like us, has free will.

And now, the Creator commands him abolished from Earth and locked away. If you've read the Bible, and especially the Book of Revelation, you know what I am talking about. And I am telling you, the end of the world as we know it and the new Earth that is a paradise, a new Earth without evil, without strife, without dis-ease, are here now...

Time, they say, is just an illusion. They say the universe exists for just one moment. So paradise on Earth is here already. We just have to make a few more steps to get there. Only because, being in the flesh, we are bound by a linear perception of time. In the quantum field, beyond the 3D matrix we are standing on, there is no time. So I am telling you, this paradise on Earth is an absolute. Already happened. And it starts inside each one of us...

So turn inside... make yourself happy by doing the things you love every day. Disconnect from all things electrical and electronic for a while and connect with nature. Meditate, pray, or just sit quietly, breathing deeply and calmly with a hand on your heart, concentrating on it, and you will feel it. Your power. Your sovereignty.

Ask God for full clarity about what is happening to you and He will grant it. Your soul is sitting inside your heart patiently, waiting for you to get silent enough to listen. And when you do, then you will start to understand...

The light at the end of the tunnel is real... the tunnel is not.

Keep holding hands with your loved ones, keep hugging and telling them you love them. Show compassion to everyone, to every perfect stranger. We're all going through the same darkness. Together, we remain strong. God is here, He has us all in his sights, whispering to us words of comfort as we go through this, I promise you.

Quieten yourself down so you can hear, and keep on asking God for clarity. He will hold you by the hand and lead you out of the darkness. A perfect paradise awaits us all right here on Earth, and it is bathed in Divine Light, the Evil that plagues us eradicated by our Creator. All we ever dreamed of is waiting for us in what lies ahead. Remember your power. Turn within. It's all there. It will guide you. God bless you, All.

The enemy of humanity is a rich global elite of satanists called Cabal (aka Deep State or New World Order). They have always worked against Humanity, while branding all truth coming out about them a 'conspiracy theory' so that they can continue to act discreetly while the majority of people have no idea they exist.

In every cycle of their malicious agendas, they have used the same methods to exercise control. What they did in Nazi Germany they're now doing globally. They divide people, then turn the masses against the minority. The unvaxxed have been the new Jews. What they did with the Spanish flu pandemic, they're doing again now so they can hurt as many people as they can once more.

But this evil agenda is their last one. This is where they get what they deserve, and we get rid of them once and for all. Just wait and see. I've told you many times. The armies of the world have been taking action against them under wraps. We're nearly there, to the end of the war to end all wars. Don't believe your TV. The enemy controls it. Do your own research.

Believe me, in the eyes of God, everything has been necessary. His plan is perfect. For the past 2.5 years, we have all known absolute misery, numbing fear and trepidation, and the violation of our human rights. But all that involves a unique blessing...

God has been helping us see the truth all along - shining a light through the darkness for us. I speak of the truth about our tyrannical, corrupt, criminal governments, the totalitarianism of Big Tech and Big Pharma, the mind control and deception of the mass media. But we have been cloistered in our own little lives for decades, too distracted to see it all.

And if we could see or suspect what truly hid behind our leaders' and favorite celebs' facades of propriety, innovative science and political correctness, we didn't care. We had become complacent and self-indulgent. That is why the lockdowns, the fear of the unknown, the isolation, and even the unprecedented oppression have all been necessary for us to understand.

Speaking energetically, the definition of 'light' is 'information'. And only light can dissolve darkness. The oppressors have been keeping us in the dark - i.e. withholding information from us - for far too long. And just like a woman has to endure the state of pregnancy and birthing pains in order to bring life forth, thus the world had to suffer in order to awaken, then bring forth paradise on earth. That is why we had to have this pandemic. Believe it or not, it is not a curse, but a blessing in the eyes of God. Just like the Flood was...

Those who manage to overcome their numbing fear of death because of covid, enough to line up the facts and think logically, will be able to see clearly that covid is a blessing. The tyrannical measures that come with it are serving to awaken us to the truth about our governments, Big Pharma and Big Tech.

These systems are criminal and no longer even bother to hide their agenda for world domination and absolute control of the people. But, sadly for them, their despicable master—Satan, whom they all worship secretly—has no power over our one and true God. The plan to awaken Humanity is ongoing and divine...

Trust it as it unfolds. Switch off the TV, a mass control device that deceives and lies, and turn to the Internet for information. We all have a friend who opposes the measures, who does research. If you don't know where to look, ask them to give you a pointer or two...

The Internet is the only place where you're allowed to find truth these days. Question everything when it comes to mass media and always explore the other possibility. Learn to discern. Decide for yourself what is right and what is wrong. What is true and what is false.

Don't count on anyone to tell you anything. Not even me... Count only on yourself and the fruit of your own research. Tricky, I know...

We were never taught to look for ourselves. Or to trust our instincts. On purpose. Our minds were programmed from childhood through school and via our already indoctrinated adult relatives to trust others for truth and information. Never ourselves, never to use our own discernment and intuition.

And now, God is sounding the bell to summon us all 'back to school'... So we can all remember our true nature and our Divine powers...

Hang in there. Things can only get clearer and easier from this point forward. Once all the darkness has been cleared, we'll all stand in our sovereignty, we'll see divine justice being served, and on that blessed day, we will be so joyful, so relieved, so exhilarated, that we will all feel that this terrible ordeal was worthwhile, after all.

Because the paradise that awaits us at the end of this hell goes beyond our wildest fantasies. And so it is. I promise you. For now, hang in there, and take care of yourselves. God bless you, All.

Life is in every moment. Beautiful, vibrant, full of possibilities for joy and contentment. Every day, take short breaks, just to 'smell the roses'.

I take breaks to look at the sky and see shapes in the clouds, to sit on the floor of my veranda and stroke my cats, or just to look outside my window to watch the birds chirping and skipping from branch to branch in the trees. Find your own little pockets of 'heaven' to dwell in, every day.

Even if it means to put on your favourite music and sing your head off, dance till your old bones begin to creak. WE make life. Life does not make US. And all together, we make up our world. So let's make each individual world inside our minds and hearts, a heaven. Let's make all the building blocks of our future world vibrate with the joy of life.

Only then will we have the world we long for, the world we deserve. It starts from each one of us. And all it takes is one conscious decision. So keep taking time daily to seek joy. Life can be beautiful, perfect, enthralling even, if we make it so. So what will you make your life today?

What kind of a day do YOU want?
